The chart is dominant in the characteristics of Fixed signs which means one can be quite focused and single-minded in their pursuits. They deeply value feeling authenticity connected to themselves, and being in touch with their own preferences. They are able to stick RELAXA with perseverance towards their goals. They require stability, they are not intimidated them. But they can be critical of others who do not maintain their integrity.

The key thing about the T-Square is that the planets primarily fall in the Mutable signs (Taurus, Gemini, Pisces, Sagittarius). The chart is dominant in the characteristics of Mutable signs, which means one enjoys being adaptable, conforming themselves to what is required in any situation. In fact, the individual needs to be flexible and seek out situations in which their malleability is tested. Standing one’s ground is of little importance to such a person, who enjoys discovering how to be successful and versatile in any situation.

Such an individual actively seeks out learning from people from all walks of life, seeking to be a jack of all trades in whatever they do. On the other hand, they can react to situations by conforming out of fear, seeking to be like a chameleon, mutable and unnoticed if they are uncomfortable. Their desire to please can get them in trouble, as they can come across inconsistent or even deceitful. The beauty of this placement is in learning how to stretch oneself and be adaptable, one finds they are powerful beyond measure.
